

Adam D. Williams

Adam D. Williams is an O&G supply-chain logistics subject-matter-professional serving as Senior Manager, Senior Subcontracts Administrator, Supply Chain Manager, and Capital Projects Supervisor. Adam's capacity to connect, verbally and in writing, with a variety of peers, managers, administrators, and key stakeholders is effectual.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

2016 – 2017 Falcon Midstream Services, LLC Conroe, TX

Senior Manager

- Primary oversight of this first-year, $1.6MM revenues start-up pipeline services concern provisioning hydrostatic and pneumatic testing, and pipelines and facilities cleaning and drying including fill/test/dewater/clean/dry Progressive Pipeline, ONEOK Roadrunner 82 mi./30", and tested Plains All American 50 mi./24" Basin Pipeline
- Coordinated operations purchasing inventories and project consumables, associated with receiving, reviewing, responding to, and commissioning annual 150 RFPs

2015 Matrix Services, Inc. Houston, TX

Manager – Supply Chain

- Administered 6 pump-station/$500MM/Dakota Access Pipeline and large midstream EPC projects supply-chain efforts, including procurement, subcontracts management, material and fleet management

2010 – 2015 Plains All American Pipeline L.P. Houston, TX

Contracts Supervisor – Capital Projects (12-15)

- Full oversight and administration of Capital Projects Construction Services Group, growing from annual $350MM/2010 to $2.1B/2015 capital budget, directing 5 personnel including capital project specialists and administrators, consulting with engineering, project management, purchasing, contracts and insurance, and strategic sourcing groups and operations, managing RFP process from receipt through post-bid
- Post-bid/award oversight including coordinating Master Service Agreements, obtaining properly executed financial documents and instruments, and ensuring contractual covenants compliance

Contracts Lead – Capital Projects (10-12)

- Working manager, coordinate with 3 reporting associates and Capital Projects Group, bidding annual 100's contracts/RFPs, up to $600MM annually, including engineering services, field surveying, pipelines and terminals construction, metering facilities, tank expansions, and rail terminals

2009 BAE Systems Tactical Vehicle Systems Sealy, TX
Project Administrator
▪ Direct VP report overseeing engineering, manufacturing, and installation of U.S. Government Mine Resistant Ambush Protected (MRAP) vehicles custom aftermarket equipment including bullet-proof windows, impenetrable steel floors, impervious suspensions, and associated safety-related enhancements and advancements

2007 – 2009 Technip USA Houston, TX
Senior Subcontracts Administrator
▪ Received, bid, and awarded, for $400MM refinery upgrade, subcontracts including for piping tie-ins, storage tank foundations, piling, and civil assignments

2006 – 2007 KBR, Inc. Houston, TX
Senior Subcontracts Administrator – LOGCAP III
▪ Negotiated, administered, and awarded 40+ contracts, for logistical support including meals, transportation, laundry, etc. logistical services, cumulative ~$400MM, coordinate with supervision and management of 5 ancillary personnel, supporting KBR Middle East efforts

2006 Parsons Infrastructure & Technology Baghdad, Iraq
Subcontracts Administrator – Coalition Munitions Clearance
▪ Charged with administering U.S. Army Corps of Engineers purchase orders and subcontracts issuance supporting excavation/disposal of Iraqi munitions bunkers, 100% compliant with Federal Acquisition regulations

ACADEMIC

2001 Texas A&M University College Station, TX
Bachelor's Degree – Industrial Distribution

ADDITIONAL PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

2003 – 2005 KBR, Inc. Houston, TX
Subcontracts Administrator – LOGCAP (Houston, TX/Kuwait)

2001 – 2003 Stewart and Stevenson Services, Inc. Houston, TX
Sales Representative – Industrial Power Products